Statement from the family of John and Jane Doe

We are shocked and saddened at the loss of our parents who were so loved by their family and community. We are working with the investigators to help facilitate a thorough investigation to apprehend and bring to justice those who were responsible. We ask that our privacy is respected as we are coming to terms with these events. The family has also established a blog, johnandjanedoe.com, where we will be posting additional information.

Issued By: Jack Doe, Jill Smith, Bob Doe (Children of John and Jane Doe)

All further media inquiries should be directed to the press representative for the family, Phil Smith, 888-888-8888.
